Saco Bay Artists Newsletter

From Our Co-Chairs

Hello,

The last show of the season for Saco Bay Artists was on Saturday, August 31, Labor Day weekend which, at this point, seems so long ago.

Results from the August 31 show are below:

1st - Joy Barnes, "Hydrangeas in Motion," fun, lively color, texture and movement; good feeling

2nd - Kathy Angel Lee, "Pop of Purple," bold fun color; good energy and texture

3rd - Thayden Farrington, "Reflections," great abstract feel; surprising to find what it really is; good color and texture

Honorable Mention (3)

Barbara Jordan, "Saucy," good strong composition and energy of the storm

Tony Lemire, "Pier in the Fog;" nice atmosphere and texture; I want to be there.

Joseph Barnett, "Fields and Farms in Sunlight;" love the colors and patterns and texture

Bill Edmunds Award - Joseph Rokowski; "Outward Bound," wonderful almost watercolor feel; composition pulls me into photo and lets me enjoy the textures and colors

Marea Lehman Award - Robert Dunn, "Windjammer Holiday;" good mixture of mediums - pastel/watercolor/gesso; good feeling of movement; Marea loved to try new things

Judge was Jan Kolb.

Next month will be election for officers for the coming year. We are fortunate in that many of our current officers/ chairpersons will return. BUT, we do need a secretary. Volunteers have stepped up at various meetings, but we haven't had a regular secretary for many months now. Please contact Kathy if you are interested in this job.

Elizabeth Shore has already planned out an exciting year of programs for 2014. Full list will be shared in the November newsletter. For the rest of this year we have the following:

October 14, 7-9 PM - Jeannette (Priscilla) Daigneault with a jewelry demonstration

November 11, Noon-2PM - Jan Kolb, gauche

December 9, 7-9 PM - holiday party

We hope to see you at one or more of these meetings. Enjoy this lovely fall.

Kathy and Jen

Exhibit of Works Under $200 Scheduled at River Tree Arts

(Kennebunk, ME) Are you an artist or artisan with fine quality works? Do you want to be part of an under $200 juried exhibit? Be part of the River Tree Arts creative economy and sell your goods. All work will be juried based on quality of goods and creating a diverse offering in the gallery during our busiest retail season.

The drop off schedule for jurying is November 4 and 5 from 10:30 am to 4:00 pm. Please refer to the Prelude poster and River Tree Arts website (www.rivertreearts.org) for a complete list of drop off procedures and requirements.

Located in the lower village at 35 Western Avenue in Kennebunk, Maine, River Tree Arts is a nonprofit community arts center that features the Irvine Gallery which promotes Maine artists and artisans.

Tammy Ackerman is seeking artists to display their work in a very nice space at City Hall in Biddeford. Call her at 370-9130 to let her know if you are interested. Also contact Iona Desmond to display at the OOB Town Hall at 934-4742.

Some of our members were caught "working hard" at The Pines during a recent Monday paint gathering.

Editor's Ramblings

At a recent outing to my favorite store, Trader Joes—I was reminded of the fact that nature presents art in a wide variety of settings. Here is what I found right next to my car when I came back with my purchases...a beautiful arrangement of leaves in the parking lot! As we all appreciate finding artistic reminders in our daily lives, I thought I would share this one with you! On a different front, my apologies for the brevity of this newsletter, but little content has been flowing my way...you are encouraged to send me your news for the next one!!! Happy Fall!
